INSTRUCTIONS

or suggestions as to how to conduct this study.

I can only suggest how this study was originally conducted and it was very successful. First of all, we tried to arrange a very informal atmosphere with the folks sitting in a loose circle. We would begin the session by having tea, or cokes and an informal time of fellowship. Then we would have a prayer time with everyone suggesting names of those for whom we should pray. It was also mentioned each session that we expected that each individual have at least one person for whom they would agree to pray for in regards to that person's salvation.

To actually begin the study the entire chapter would be read aloud with each one willing to read, taking the number of verses and dividing it by the number of people present and each one reading a portion.

Then the first one on the left (a habit of mine) would begin by reading the first question and giving their answer. The verse where their answer was found must also be given. Then the leader asks if everybody agrees. Let discussion carry on as necessary but not too long. Then go to the next question and the next person until all of the fifteen questions are answered.

For the discussion questions (numbers 16-17-18) each person present should give their answer once again going from the first one on the left and so on. Answer one question at a time, with each person present giving their reasons for their answer to each question. Discussion can be long or short depending on how the group feels. Do not carry the class session on too long.

Encourage each one to prepare his answers BEFORE the session begins if at all possible only because they will get more out of the discussion if they have thought about it.

COMMENTS ON ACTS BEGINNING WITH CHAPTER 16 - 21

16:6-10 Paul's vision of the man from Macedonia was the directing of the Holy Spirit to enter into Europe. From small beginnings the Gospel spread. First there was the conversion of Lydia. She is called a worshiper of God (verse 14). Someone who knew about God but who had not become a proselyte (a Jew by citizenship). There must not have been a synagogue in the city since they worshiped by the river.

After Paul preached the Gospel to the women there, Lydia's heart was opened by the Lord to receive the Gospel and to respond to Paul's message. The way she responded was by having Paul baptize her. Although Paul may not have baptized her himself. (I Corinthians 1:13-17)

THE JAILOR - 16:16-33 Which resulted in the Gospel being preached and baptism was the result, for all who believed and accepted the preached word.

IN ATHENS - 17:23 Paul noticed an altar to AN UNKNOWN GOD. Some years before this there had been a great earthquake and since they had a shrine and worshiped every god they had ever heard about, they thought that there must have been one they did not know and he was angry with them for not knowing him and had caused the great earthquake. So when they rebuilt the city, they put up an altar to AN UNKNOWN GOD in case they had left one out. Paul identifies this unknown God with the God Almighty who is the creator of heaven and earth.

CORINTH - 18:1FF Paul met Aquila and Priscilla. They were tent makers so he stayed with them, he also was a tentmaker. Here in this chapter is an account of a woman, Priscilla, who with her husband taught a man more accurately in the faith, Apollos (verses 24-26). They went with Paul when he left Corinth so they must have been converted to Christ before they met Paul or during his stay with them although no mention is made of either idea. Yet they were Christians since they could instruct Apollos. There was probably a Church in Rome at that time of which they were a part. Paul did not establish the Church at Rome, neither did Peter.

SECOND MISSIONARY JOURNEY ENDS (ACTS 18:22) He returns to Antioch where he had started from. In Cenchrea he cut off all his hair because of a vow he had made. (Numbers 6:1-21) tells about the vow of a Nazarite. We are not told whether he completed this vow by doing what is required in Numbers, such as going to Jerusalem to be in the Temple.

THIRD AND LAST MISSIONARY JOURNEY MENTIONED IN SCRIPTURE.

Acts 19 and 20. Paul visits all of the Churches he had established strengthening them in the faith. Then Paul collects the money the churches had donated and heads for Jerusalem.

A note on Eutychus being raised from the dead.

1. Why preach late at night? Sunday actually began at sundown on Saturday evening and since so many people worked on the first day of the week, they could meet on Saturday night which was part of Sunday and still worship on the first day of the week.

3. This is where we get the example of coming together every Sunday to break bread (have communion service). Act 20:7.

PAUL'S FAREWELL TO THE ELDERS OF EPHEBUS.

1. Notice that the word is plural, not one but several elders which is the New Testament pattern for leadership. No one man is to lord it over another. They must work together. They were to shepherd the flock of God over which the Holy Spirit had made them overseers.

1. Chapter 22 - Paul is arrested and gives his defense. Compare the defense given here with what he says in Chapter 26 and with the actual event as it is recorded in Acts 9:3 - 19.

a. Discuss how these items are reported in each place in Acts;

1) The sound that Paul and his companions heard.

2) The light that Paul and his companions saw - in relation to what each saw.

3) What is said concerning baptism in each instance if anything.

2. Some of the aspects of privileges of being a Roman Citizen.

Acts 22:23 - 29

Acts 25:8 - 12

Acts 25:23 - 27 with Acts 26:32

Acts 28:16 and 30 - 31.

3. Acts 28:1 - 6 This is the only recorded instance of the fulfillment of the promise found in Mark 16:15 - 18. Especially of the snakes.
